

PROMOTE OUR ZAZZLE PRODUCTS TO YOUR CONTACTS AND FOLLOWERS!

At Janusian Gallery, our mission is to make extraordinary art available and affordable to as many people as possible. As you might expect, that's a lot of work for just two people. While we promote our products aggressively via this weblog, Facebook page, web site, Pinterest page, Twitter feed, Instagram page, Wanedo, Flickr feed, YouTube, Tumblr page, etc., we understand that our reach to the online community is somewhat limited. That's where we could use a little help.

You know people we don't know who may be interested in buying products from our seven Zazzle stores: Janusian Gallery, Be There Invitations, Smell My Feet, Heavenly Peace, Rover the Bear, Waving the Flag, and Just Mandalas. We don't expect you to introduce them to our products out of the sheer bigness of your heart and neither does Zazzle. Zazzle has developed an affiliate program (www.zazzle.com/sell/affiliates) to essentially pay you a commission on sales you generate while promoting the work of Zazzle designers like Janusian Gallery. Be your own boss and work whatever hours you please. This could be a good opportunity for anyone who's good with computers and wants to work from home.

First, if you haven't done so already, sign up for a Zazzle account to obtain a referral ID. Next, read Zazzle's information on to use that referral ID to earn a referral fee on sales of our products from customers you brought to our pages. Read the instructions carefully to make sure you'll get full credit for the sales you generate. You're not limited to just Janusian Gallery products: you can promote any of the billions of products for sale on Zazzle. There are no upfront costs: all it takes is "sweat equity" in finding items you like and getting the word out about them. (While you may decide to purchase your own business cards or buy ad words at your own cost, we do not believe Zazzle requires this.) Curate collections of products that others might also like.

While browsing through Zazzle for items you might like to promote as an affiliate/associate, please visit our stores and check out our more than 2,200 items:

We wouldn't suggest that you do anything we wouldn't do ourselves. Our Zazzle stores include sections for other people's products that we like. We're blown away by the creativity on Zazzle and want to introduce our store visitors to items they might not find by themselves. (And yes, we make a referral fee of any sales of them.)

THE FINE PRINT

Finally, because some of our best friends are lawyers, we want to remind you that although we may be recruiting you to be a Zazzle associate, your arrangement is entirely with Zazzle. We take no responsibility for the results of this arrangement. That means, among other things, that we're not responsible for any failure on Zazzle's part to credit you for a sale or any failure to pay you all monies owed. We're also not responsible for things you do yourself as an associate / affiliate. And because we have absolutely no control over Zazzle's manufacturing or distribution process, your sole recourse (and the sole recourse for your customers and ultimate users of the products) for problems with product quality, safety, delivery, and performance is through Zazzle and/or the product manufacturer. Janusian Gallery also makes no representations, promises, or guarantees as to earnings realization or potential. If you do not agree to this, then do not promote our products.
